Jesus' Return

“Look, he is coming with the clouds,” and “every eye will see him, even those who pierced him”; and all peoples on earth “will mourn because of him.” So shall it be! Amen. “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.”

Revelation 1:7-8

The book of Revelation was written by John as an encouragement to Christians who were undergoing discrimination and persecution under the Roman Empire. John points out that what we see on Earth is not the whole picture and he shows the readers the reality of what is happening in the heavenly realm. This vision has been a source of encouragement for the faithful for millennia as it shows the sovereignty of the Father and Jesus' authority over all things, including the powers on Earth.

Right at the start of the book we see the promise that Jesus will return to Earth and will be seen by all creation. This return will set right all the injustice that exists because of sin. Evil, and its source Satan, will be dealt with finally and completely and those who willfully reject the rule of Jesus will be separated from those who embrace the authority of Jesus. Inevitably, this will result in a new heavens and a new Earth as the recreative force of God's grace renews all things that had been stained by sin. We do not fear the return of Jesus. We witness to His love and grace until he comes.
