20th April 2008— 5th Sunday of Easter

WELCOME to all worshipping with us over Easter.

Greetings to any visitors here with us. We are pleased to have you join us and we trust you have felt welcomed and pray the Holy Spirit may enlighten and empower us with the message shared with us today.

*Tea & coffee is available in the Fellowship Centre following morning service
Please feel welcome to join us.*

TWO MINUTES

"Do not be worried and upset" Jesus told them. "Believe in God and believe also in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house, and I am going to prepare a place for you."

John 14 contains some of my favourite verses of Scripture. What great assurance we have in the promise of Jesus of an eternal home with him.

'Home' has always been a special place for me. As a child it meant happiness and security, and today that is still true – a place to share with loved ones. After a busy day at work, I love to come home, change into trackpants and ugg boots, and relax. After a trip away, I still feel excitement as we turn into our street and we see our house again. Home to me means comfort, refuge and peace.

When we trust in Jesus as the way, the truth and the life, we are assured of a home with him – a place of eternal peace and happiness. When we make our final journey, and leave our earthly home to go to the place that Jesus has prepared, he will be there to take us by the hand and lead us. We will be able to look into his face and forever enjoy the splendour, beauty, wonder and grandeur of our eternal home. Welcome home!

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the church foyer. Paper & pencils are available for children (and adults too if they would like to take notes of the message!!!)

It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during Worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

- A special welcome to those who have joined us this morning for Mitchell Stevenson and Isla Campbell's baptism.
- Today we are continuing to looking at Living with the Lord. The title for our address is "The Lord in the place of honour", based on Stephen's vision recorded in Acts 7:55, 56, before he died. What is the last thing you would like to see before you die? In this sermon today we shall see that The Lord is at God's right hand, in the place of power and He is standing.

- I refer to the book "In my Father's House" This book as well as any others, like "Crossing Over" (which I spoke about a couple of weeks ago) and 2 books by the speaker at the "Get Real" Conference Mike Foss: "Power Surge" and "A Servant's Manuel" are all available from our library- (SEE THE STAND IN THE FOYER.)

- Over these weeks I have been presenting what I see as what you value at GGLF. So the fourth core value of GGLF, I have noticed:

We value Fellowship Groups for the care given there through its members. The congregation's primary caring structure is the "Fellowship Group". The congregation acknowledges that not all our members will join a Fellowship Group but for those who are members of such a group we expect they will be cared for. We are constantly encouraging members to be actively involved in a Fellowship Group. We are encouraging that Fellowship Groups be places of growing in learning, serving and fellowship, through our Small Group Coordinators. We believe that people should feel comfortable to bring their non church going friends to such a group and so its part of our mission. We have special interest Fellowship Groups such a GGAF, men's ministry groups, craft groups and playgroup which are highly valued by the congregation.

- Last week's value on mission could be better put as mission as the purpose for our existence. I see that we are a mission congregation. But I wonder if that is really the way the rest of the congregation see it.
- I have come across a small group guide entitled Tuning into God: 6 sessions considering songs from the Beatles. I am interested in joining a small group to study this or leading a small group myself. What about you? Are you interested?
- No Confirmation session here today. The confirmees are attending a YPOUT Camp. Next Sunday we'll be looking at the fruit of the Spirit, witnessing and serving. The day of confirmation is 18th May.
- Next Step/Confirmation 2008/2009 meeting for young people and their parents/guardians - to work out the structure of the course: Wednesday 7th May - with the thought that confirmation sessions would start at the beginning of 3rd Term with Alyssa leading the first term.
- Foster Grandparents. I floated this idea a few weeks ago. What was it again?: People who have volunteered to be available for parents with (small) children so they can look after the children (during the sermon) to enable the parents to have a better chance to not be distracted. It is happening already. But having this "position" would make this ministry available to more parents. Perhaps a badge could let new families know that this is available to them. I haven't had that much response? What do you think? (Let me know on the back of the Welcome Sheet or talk to me about it. Would you like to coordinate this?) I am planning a meeting in the near future for all those who could be interested.
- On a personal note: You might have heard that Heidi hasn't been very well. We took her to hospital Friday week ago in excruciating pain, she underwent a gall stone operation on Saturday and we brought her home on Monday. She is well on the road to recovery. Sorry that I hadn't notified you earlier but it was very sudden. Thank you for those who found out and expressed their well wishes.

YOUTH SPOT

Thank you to everyone who has had involvements with CC's, REV 320 and Bakery over the last term, I have enjoyed every part of it and want to thank you for all the help you have given so far.

If you are wondering why it is so quiet this weekend, it is because Tatachilla has captured our youth for Ypout '08. I am sure that you will hear wonderful stories about this in the next few weeks and I encourage you to talk with the youth about this experience.

Coming up:

Youth Alive is happening on the Saturday 26th April, it starts at 7:30 and finishes around 10:30pm. It is at Paradise auditorium and Delirious are playing. We would like to meet here first at 6:30pm, so that we can leave as a group. It will be a fun night and I encourage you all to go. Tickets cost $15 and I still have a heap saved for you. So please let me know if you want to go! Also the leaders retreat is on the 24th & 25th May. Please let me know if you are interested because the cost will be determined by the number of people that go. It will be a fun time of relaxation and getting together with other people interested in leadership. There will also be a few people coming to talk to us about various aspects of church life.

Please continue to keep the youth of the church in your thoughts and prayers ☺

September brings a new Season in the Church Year at GGLF. It is called the Season of Creation. We are focussing on 4 aspects of God's creation, one each Sunday:

Forests
 Land
 Outback Rivers

As well as a liturgical focus, we would like to have visual displays that illustrate these themes. To manage the task we are looking for 4 leaders (one for each Sunday) plus teams of people to decorate the church. This can be a real outreach time for our congregation and a great teaching tool for our school so please get excited by the possibilities and volunteer your help. The ideas on what and how will just flow when the planning begins so don't let creativity (or lack of it) stop you. Let the Worship Team know you want to be involved for one Saturday in September.

GGLF Annual General Meeting will be held on Sunday 4th May at 11.00 am in the Worship Centre

The distribution pack for the School AGM (which will be held on the same date) will be available next weekend.
