TWO MINUTES

John 1 v 16,17

"Out of His fullness we have all received grace in place of grace already given. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

'The law, given through Moses' - that looks like a good place to start these thoughts. Familiar territory! The Law, like a mirror, look into it and see yourself as James 1 v 23 implies. I grasp hold of that mirror with both hands looking into it for hope and help but instead I feel desperate and fearful as I take each bit and see how I measure up. No way – not even by the punctuation can I live according to the Law. Yet in the Epistle (v4) today we hear God say, 'He chose us in Jesus before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight.'

So here I am peering into the mirror of God's holy law, searching for some way to justify myself, some iota of it that I can succeed at and just as I squint for the smallest vestige of help I see a change is happening! What can it be? Watching closely it is as if the back of the mirror is gradually being scratched away and a new image is appearing. Ah, amazing images appear . . . The baby Jesus in a manger, Jesus the teacher, there's Jesus the helper, the healer, look Jesus praying, Jesus on the cross, Jesus cooking breakfast for his friends - a glimpse 'through the looking glass,' into God's reality. What I see is the fulfillment of verse 16 quoted above. The glorious grace (Jesus) in place of grace already given (the Law).

I no longer need to despair for Christ has fulfilled the law for me - every letter, every noun, verb and punctuation mark! Through Him I am adopted as a Child of God. Grace upon Grace. I am that holy blameless child He saw before the creation of the world and all through the Christ child who came at Christmas.

In praise of Your Glorious Grace, Dear Lord, Thank you, thank you, thank you. Amen.

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

TPlease encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area in the church.

Activity sheets for young readers and writers—Families with children of all ages, please notice there are new activity sheets (e.g. word puzzles) available for various age groups. The sheets will be changed over periodically. Please help yourself - they can be found with the children's toys, pens and papers etc.

It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

Welcome to our worship on this 2nd Sunday in Christmas. Anna is speaking on a wonderful text Jeremiah 31:7: "This is what the LORD says: "Sing with joy for Jacob; shout for the foremost of the nations. Make your praises heard, and say, 'LORD, save your people, the remnant of Israel." Notice what Anna says about being the remnant. Thank you Anna.

Next week we have another guest speaker. Pastor Len will be officiating Holy Communion.

Remember instead of Salt Factory worship we have a special DVD series every Sunday evening in January, starting tonight.

Please note the flvers for our new Youth Team Leader: applications close on 16th January and flyers for the Everyday Evangelism Course we are running in March.

At the beginning of this New Year I would love to encourage you to take up (or take up again) some spiritual disciplines such as a set time for prayer, Bible reading and journaling. I am sure I will remind you about these throughout this year.

Another book I would like to recommend to you is RT Kendall's latest: "Did you think to pray?" (Soon to be in our library). I read it over Christmas. RT Kendall writes so simply but what he says is profound. If you want to understand where I am coming from I would encourage vou to read this book.

I will be back from Annual Leave in 8 days time and I have noticed in my diary there are many appointments planned for the second part of January and Febru ary. Keep you ears open.

Pastor Leon
